LIMA, OHIO, MONDAY, MAY 16, 1921

PRICE THREE CENTS

Interviews— Ideas and Fancies

DR. J. J. SUTTER, county health commissioner. "The city hasn't settled the garbage question yet. As long as the weather remains cold the danger is not great, but it must be taken care of before the hot days come. Garbage, improperly taken care of, flies and disease all go together."

F. E. HAMAN, "In planning our parks we must look into the future. Lima is growing and will continue to do so. When we make our plans we should make them to permit expansion. That is, build our parks in units. Each unit would be added as needed but it would be planned and contemplated in the original plans."

O. L. DEWEES, DeWeese Garage. "A valuable trade will be lost to Lima and Lima merchants if the two hour parking plan is carried thru. Farmers and other out of town customers will discriminate against Lima if they have to move their car two or three times during a day's shopping, to escape arrest."

MRS. T. D. BRADLEY, $25 W. Springs. "Everything was looking fine in the country Sunday. We were out in our automobile and although the air was cool, we enjoyed every moment of our ride. The trees are all in leaf and the wheat and other crops seem to be doing fine. To me, spring is the most enjoyable season of the year."

M. M. MILLIKAN, Lions representative on the C. C. good roads committee. "If Lima and Allen-county expect to share in any of the good roads appropriations being made by the state they must take an interest in good roads affairs. If memberships are taken out by the leading citizens and organizations in the Ohio Good Roads Federation and an active interest shown in the work much good will be done."

JUDGE J. H. HAMILTON, Allen-county Probate Court. "I believe that the state should erect and maintain a home for aged women just the same as it does for war veterans and others. Here is no one so helpless as an aged woman, left without aid by the death of her husband. The money would be well spent."

COX'S DAUGHTER DIES SUDDENLY

Mrs. D. J. Mahoney Expires at Her Home in Dayton

DAYTON.—(By Associated Press)—Mrs. Helen Cox Mahoney, 25, daughter of former Governor James M. Cox, died suddenly at her home in Oakwood early this morning. She had apparently been in good health and her death came without a moment's warning.

Her husband, D. J. Mahoney, is general manager of the governor's newspaper in this city.

Mrs. Mahoney passed thru a serious illness several months ago but apparently had entirely recovered.

A statement issued from the home later in the day said that death was the result of a severe cold contracted two days ago, which developed into pneumonia.

Funeral services will be held at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the residence and burial will be made in Woodlawn cemetery beside her grandmother.

1 SHOT, 2 TAKEN IN BATTLE WITH POLICE

Five black masks, two hundred rounds of ammunition, five revolvers and as many blackjacks were found in an automobile occupied by the men, which was riddled with sixteen bullets. Its license tag was issued in Columbus.

WAR LAW URGED FOR MINE ZONE

West Virginia Senator Pleads to Weeks to Hasten Aid in Strike Battle—State Troops Capture Five in Raid on Mountain District

WASHINGTON.—(By Associated Press)—Senator Sutherland of West Virginia, called on Secretary Weeks today to urge him to promulgate the proclamation signed Saturday by President Harding declaring martial law in the strike area in West Virginia and Kentucky.

Senator Sutherland also urged the immediate dispatch of federal troops to the strike district. Before calling on the war secretary, Senator Sutherland talked to Governor Morgan of West Virginia, over the long distance telephone. He said the governor believed the presence of federal troops was imperative if law and order were to be restored in the riotous regions. Martial law, in addition to presence of the troops, would be much preferred by the West Virginia authorities, Senator Sutherland said, in order that the military officials might have complete power to take charge of the situation.

ORDERED REFUSED
Secretary Weeks said his information was that the situation was much improved and that the presence of 300 special deputy sheriffs, and two companies of Kentucky national guardsmen called into service Saturday and Sunday, was working to restore order. The proclamations declaring a state of martial law to exist were in his desk, Secretary Weeks added, and would remain there until he had information that the situation had become much more serious.

Secretary Weeks and Senator Sutherland called on President Harding at the White House to lay the situation before him and later Secretary Weeks called Governor Morgan on the long distance telephone, to discuss the situation with him. The secretary said Major General Read,

STOLEN DIAMONDS ARE RECOVERED

Sparklers Taken in Wapak Robbery Found in Cleveland

Detectives in Cleveland Monday recovered fourteen diamonds, worth $3,000, stolen in March from players in a poker game at the William Weber residence on Harrison-st., Wapakoneta, when the place was held up by a party of masked bandits early in the evening.

Money and diamonds secured by the holdups totaled about $7,000. Several arrests have been made of men supposed to have been implicated in the robbery and confessions have been secured by police at Wapakoneta from David Whitfield, Chicago youth, they state.

Detectives at Cleveland traced the stolen diamonds to a loan company, thru the aid of Mrs. Edythe White, of Dayton, who later went to Cleveland and was an unwilling aide in the arrest of Guy Tennent, taken there as one of the robbers.

According to Cleveland dispatches Monday, Mrs. White said she did not know the diamonds were stolen when they were left with her before she turned them over to a man now under arrest. He gives his name as Herbert Masonbrink and Celina as his home.

Masonbrink, the dispatch states, previously questioned by detectives, said that while he was trying to sell the diamonds he was held up and robbed of them in a house on Oregon-ave, in Cleveland.

PLOT TO WRECK TRAIN IS INVESTIGATED

BLOOMINGTON, Ill.—Investigation into the identity of the plotters who are supposed to have caused the wreck of "The Hummer," Chicago and Alton Railway crack flyer, was started today.

"The Hummer," going 50 miles an hour, plunged into an open switch at Shirley, Ill., seven miles from here, late last night.

George Scuttles, fireman, who was pinned under the wreckage of the cab, is reported fatally injured. Twenty others were hurt.

The theory of railroad officials is that the switch was thrown open by a demented person with a grudge against the railroad.

$2,000,000 LEFT TO OHIO INSTITUTIONS

CINCINNATI.—The $2,000,000 estate left by Mrs. Eleanor C. U. Alms, widow of Frederick Alms, one of the founders of the Alms and Doeppke Company, department store, this city, is to go into a trust for the benefit of educational, charity, art, musical and recreational institutions in this city, by the terms of Mrs. Alms' will, filed today.

The institutions to receive bequests are the Cincinnati College of Music, the Cincinnati Art Museum, the University of Cincinnati and the City Park department.

WILLIAMSON, W. Va.—(By Associated Press)—Kentucky militia men recently arrived in the Williamson fighting zone have started combing the wooded mountain section and already have arrested five men, according to reports reaching Sheriff Plason's office today. The men were taken to Pikeville, Ky., the reports stated.

For the present, it was said, the militiamen will devote their efforts to apprehending those who have been engaged in the fighting but will make an effort to locate the base of supplies from which point distribution of arms and ammunition has been made, according to officials here.

Little firing was reported this morning along the battle line between McCarr, Ky., and Rawl, W. Va.

ATTACK ON DRY ACT FAILS

Ratification Clause Upheld by Supreme Court

WASHINGTON.—(By Associated Press)—The requirement that the prohibition amendment be ratified within seven years by three-fourths of the states does not invalidate the entire measure, the supreme court today ruled.

The decision was given in the appeal of J. J. Dillon, of San Francisco from decisions in lower courts refusing his petition for a writ of habeas corpus, on the ground that the limitation made the amendment invalid January 16, 1920. Dillon's alleged purpose was to raise the issue of the constitutionality of the amendment.

"We find that proposal and ratification of an amendment are treated as succeeding acts in common endeavor," the opinion said, "and there is a fair implication that they should be fairly contemporaneous."

In the course of the decision the court ruled formally that the prohibition amendment went into effect January 16, 1920. Dillon's alleged offense was on January 17, 1920.

COLDER TONIGHT

Frost Thruout the State of Ohio is Predicted.

COLUMBUS.—(By Associated Press)—Frost can be expected practically all over Ohio tonight, the weather bureau announced here today. A high pressure area which originated in the Dakotas Saturday and centered over the Mississippi valley, will reach Ohio tonight, it was said, and cooler weather will prevail over the entire state.

Two spots on the sun were plainly visible here today when viewed thru smoked glass. These were undoubtedly the cause of the appearance Saturday and Sunday nights of Aurora Borealis. Weatherman Alexander said today. Cooler weather yesterday and today, however, has no relation to either the Aurora or the sun spots, he said.

Telegraph wires, badly crippled by the Aurora Borealis Saturday night and somewhat affected yesterday, were working with but slight interference today.

OHIO WINS HONOR

Gets First Aerial Squadron Assigned to National Guard

COLUMBUS.—(By Associated Press)—Ohio is to have the first aerial squadron to be assigned to any state in connection with the national guard, it was announced here today. John Davis, president of the Columbus Aero Club, said today he had received word from the war department that the unit would be assigned and that the flying field and headquarters of the aerial unit would be located in Columbus.

Ohio was one of the few states to receive the assignment of a full national guard division of infantry and the aerial squadron is to be part of the divisional auxiliary troops. The fliers and ground personnel will be recruited from Columbus, it was announced.

LEGISLATURE ROW MAY END IN COURT

Ohio Senators Threaten Appeal if Governor Ends Session

HOUSE WILL ADJOURN TODAY

700 Bills Introduced, About 200 Becoming Laws

COLUMBUS.—(By Associated Press)—With the house under agreement to adjourn sine die late today, and the senate recessed until May 27, the adjournment status of the Ohio legislature was in doubt today.

Under the constitution, both houses must adjourn sine die within a three-day period.

Senate leaders say they do not wish to adjourn sine die, as they want the senate to have a hand in confirming appointments made by the governor. House leaders say the house is this and will not return. They declare the executive branch of the state government is co-ordinate with the legislative branch and does not need year round supervision.

Some legislators say Governor Davis may have to prorogue the legislature, terminating sessions of both houses. If this is attempted, some senators say they will test the governor's action in the supreme court.

700 BILLS INTRODUCED
Active work of the session was finished late Saturday night. The house will hold a perfunctory session today and then adjourn without date. In the senate, the main work remaining is the signing by Lieutenant Governor Brown of the general appropriations bill. Approximately 700 bills were introduced by members of the present legislature, but only a few more than 200 became laws. Most of these enacted were corrections to existing statutes.

The eighty-fourth general assembly convened with the avowed purpose of enacting a state prohibition enforcement measure, a code reorganizing the state government and a new taxation scheme.

The program was successful so far as prohibition enforcement and reorganization were concerned, but no agreement could be reached on a new taxation measure. The only taxation legislation enacted was the submitting of a constitutional amendment providing for a poll tax, and enactment of statutory measures for temporary relief.

SOLDIER BONDS
The assembly adopted a constitutional amendment which will be submitted to a popular vote this fall providing for a $20,000,000 bond issue to pay bonuses to Ohio veterans of the world war. A number of minor bills affecting ex-service men also were passed.

The legislature refused to enact legislation affecting rental and commodity prices, a bill providing a minimum wage for women and children, a bill affecting the moving picture business. A law was enacted making occupational diseases compensable under the workmen's compensation law and several bills affecting public education were passed.

PEOPLE TIED TO BURN IN HOMES

Torch Applied to Houses in England After Women and Children are Gagged and Bound—Kin of Royal Irish Police the Victims

LIVERPOOL.—(By Associated Press)—Six houses in widely separated parts of this city were raided and set on fire by parties unknown last night. The occupants of every house thus visited have relatives serving in the Royal Irish constabulary. The inmates were in some cases gagged and bound, the furniture was drenched with kerosene and set on fire and in some instances the helpless people were left to the mercy of the flames by the raiders who fled in automobiles.

WOMEN ATTACKED
The raids were in all ways similar to those made in suburban districts of London and in this city Saturday night.

One house that was raided was occupied by Mrs. Jennings, a widow and her daughter. The latter opened the door when there was a knock, and she was seized by the throat by the intruder. She struggled and fled to her mother, and then fainted. The women were too terrified to raise an alarm.

In another house were three sisters, who were overawed by a dozen men who displayed revolvers and threatened to shoot them if they stirred. The men then ignited the furniture and fled. A neighbor saw the flames and upon going to the house found the women's clothing burning from fires that had been set in bedding.

Firemen arrived in time to save the building. Two men who tried to seize the fleeing raiders were stabbed but were not seriously injured.

AGED MAN BEATEN
In another house, a man 70 years of age, was attacked and beaten with a poker. He was then gagged and bound and clothing and bedding were piled on the floor and ignited. The man's aged wife collapsed, but he, while bound, managed to struggle to a police station and give an alarm.

A retired sailor named Wilson, grappled with a raider when his home was entered, and, in spite of his 77 years, threw the intruder to the floor and held him until another raider placed a revolver at the old man's head and threatened to kill him. Wilson thereupon abandoned the struggle, but his terrified attack on the raiders prevented them from setting fire to the house. When the raiders ran, the dog chased them, but was shot dead.

A sailor named Brailsford, who lost a leg in the famous naval raid on Zeebrugge, refused to throw up his hands when men broke into his house, but threw a small sewing machine at the intruders who fled firing several shots as they left the house. None of the raiders has been arrested.

THREE OFFICERS AND WOMAN SHOT TO DEATH
DUBLIN.—(By Associated Press)—Three government officers and the wife of one of them were shot and killed in an ambush last night at Ballyfern, four miles from Gort, county Galway.

The victims were District Inspector Blake and his wife, Captain Cornwallis and Lieutenant McCreery. The captain and the lieutenant were attached to the seventeenth lance, the party was riding in a motor car when it was ambushed by forty men.

Military and police reinforcements sent to the scene were fired upon and one constable was seriously wounded.

IRISHMAN EXECUTED
CORK, Ireland.—(By Associated Press)—Daniel O'Brien of Knockbane, Liscaul, county Cork, was hanged by drumhead court-martial Saturday and executed in the Cork detention barracks at eight o'clock this morning.

O'Brien met death bravely, maintaining the same attitude that he has displayed at his trial, when in answering the request to plead, he replied "I have no defense; I was caught as a soldier and you can try me."

A few women in the vicinity of the prison offered prayers as the execution was carried out. O'Brien was attended by a priest yesterday.

200 GIRLS MISSING AT CHICAGO

Epidemic of Home Quitting Reported by Policewoman

WARNS NATION'S PARENTS
Fathers and Mothers Blamed for Restlessness

CHICAGO.—(By United Press)—Blame for runaway daughters was placed squarely upon the shoulders of the parents today by Mrs. Amice Clemmons, Chicago's famous policewoman.

Mrs. Clemmons issued a warning to the nation's parents to prevent their girls from leaving home. Girls suffering from spring restlessness are disappearing in greater numbers than ever before, she said. Two hundred cases of missing girls have been reported to Chicago police this spring. This advice was given parents by Mrs. Clemmons who is herself the mother of three grown daughters.

NEED MONEY
"Do not take every cent of your daughter's income when she starts working. Take a reasonable amount for board and room, make her save some and then give her plenty of spending money. Too many parents take every cent of their daughters' earnings. The girls, of course, want pretty things. If they cannot buy them out of their own income, they will get them some way."

"Parents should fix their homes so that the daughter need not be ashamed of inviting her men friends to call. Unless this is done, the girls will run away to some rooming house, where company can be entertained."

"A girl should be guided with kindness, not driven."

TOAST TO "HELL"
Mrs. Clemmons was one of the first policewomen in America. She has talked with thousands of fallen girls during her nine years work in Chicago.

"No wonder I'm bad," many girls have confided in Mrs. Clemmons. "All my earnings were taken by my parents. I saw pretty clothes and I got them."

Mrs. Clemmons says that girls care little what happens them, after they run away from home.

"The home is the one that binds girls to organized society," she said. "When this is broken, the worst comes—the girl does not care what happens."

"This toast, which I overheard a runaway girl repeat in a grill room the other night, brings out the attitude of the girl who leaves home: 'Here's to Hell—may it be as pleasant as the road to it.'"

WRITE COMMANDMENTS, WIN $25

WHAT are the commandments for a married man? For a married woman? For the answers to these questions The Lima News will pay $25 in cash.

This contest is not started out of idle curiosity. It is with the belief that the answers brought forth will be of inestimable value to married men and women of this community.

The presiding judge, who will be assisted by a prominent man and an equally prominent woman, will be Judge Fred C. Becker, who is making a record thru his settlement of domestic troubles as judge of the Allen-co domestic relations or divorce court.

There probably is none in the county better fitted to pass on a list of "commandments" for men and women than Judge Becker, who has had wide experience in every phase of domestic life while a jurist of Allen-co.

This contest is a business proposition calculated to bring before the entire community the best ideas of men and women on the conduct of married persons. It is prompted by a set of "commandments" laid down by a French army officer for the government of his wife. These were upheld by a court, which action stirred the entire feminine population of that nation.

The French officer's commandments provide that a wife:

1—Must make a weekly report on what she has accomplished.

2—Must keep a daily account of household expenses.

3—Keep everything in the house clean, in order and in good repair.

4—Do nothing without her husband's permission.

5—Execute her husband's orders without discussion.

6—Always be polite toward her husband.

7—Use no slang and tell no lies.

8—Dress simply and as befits her husband's pipe.

9—Never wear gaudy dresses or play the "vamp."

10—Never buy any clothes without consulting her husband.

The News will pay $7.50 for the best ten commandments for the conduct of a married man; $5 for the second best, and each of the three persons writing the three next best will be given two tickets to his or her favorite motion picture theatre.

The same prizes will be paid for the best commandments for married women, making $25 and 10 prizes in all.

The rules are simple. Each set of commandments must contain ten—no more, no less. Mail or bring your answers to the Contest Editor of The News as early as possible. Contestants may submit as many lists as they desire. Men may write commandments for men and women, for women if they wish. Names and addresses must be signed to each list.

$29,265 HELD UP ON RESERVOIR

City Auditor Refuses Payment on Lost Creek Work

DELAY OF 2 YEARS CHARGED

Violation of Contract Damage to City, Rupert Claims

Alleging that the city has been damaged by failure of the contractor to complete Lost Creek Reservoir and Pumping Station, David L. Rupert, city auditor, announced Monday that $29,265.73 due on the work will not be paid over, but retained to compensate the city for loss sustained.

"The city has lost money because J. H. Jones, contractor and the U. S. Quartermaster & Fidelity company his bondsmen, failed to complete the reservoir and pumping station on the date specified," declared Auditor Rupert. "More water could have been sold by the city and I intend to realize them for failing to finish the job on time."

CONTRACTOR FAILED
Originally the contract for the water works was let to J. H. Jones, in 1917, at a cost of $257,000. It was stipulated that the work should be finished on or before August 1, 1918. The bonding company built the reservoir and recently repaired the valves which were not working properly. The work was finally accepted by the city about May 1, this year and a monthly estimate of $6,436.29 sent to Auditor Rupert for payment. The estimate was submitted by City Engineer Vaughn Miller and approved for payment by Service Director Blumer McCall.

"I shall refuse to pay this money," declared Auditor Rupert Monday morning. "They owe the city money, because the contract was not completed until nearly two years after the date set."

AUDITOR HELD UP
Auditor Rupert also stated that he had in his possession $22,829.44, representing ten per cent of the work completed, which has been retained as a guarantee, pending final acceptance of the work. He will refuse to turn this amount over to the bonding company for the same reason. The ten per cent guarantee fund and the last estimate total $29,265.73, the approximate amount Auditor Rupert believes the city lost because of non-completion of the work.

Work on lost creek reservoir "is practically completed," Engineer Vaughn Miller stated Monday. Some repair work remains to be done, Jones, the original contractor, defaulted on the work and the bonding company continued it. Valves installed by them had to be changed recently because they would not work. The city also ordered the company to change one of the gates.

Holding up of the money, due the bonding company is no surprise to city officials, altho it is expected that litigation may result from the auditor's action.

MALADY KILLS 39

Toll Taken by Sleeping Sickness in Ohio During Month.

COLUMBUS.—(By United Press)—Efforts of medical science to combat "sleeping sickness" have failed to check the disease in Ohio.

The malady cost 39 lives in the state in February, according to figures announced today by Dr. U. G. Murrell, chief of the state bureau of vital statistics. The same number died in January.

Deaths from the disease predominated in cities, only six fatalities being reported from rural sections, in February and 11 in January. The department's statement shows an increase in the deaths from sleeping sickness. During 1920, there were only 120 deaths compared with 78 in the first two months this year.

Deaths from all causes in February totaled 5,623, a decrease of 517 from the January total.

CHARITY BALL TONIGHT FOR RELIEF OF STRICKEN PEOPLE OF EMERALD ISLE

All the proceeds of the charity ball at Knights of Columbus hall Monday night are to go to the relief of the suffering and starving people of Ireland.

Over her green fields the terrible scourge of war is sweeping, snaring them brown with its hot breath. War, famine, pestilence and death, the "Four Horsemen" are booted and spurred and riding anew. In their wake is ruin.

America has always been first and foremost to help suffering peoples. Lima has always contributed its share.

"We are hoping for a generous response from Lima to clothe and feed a starving, stricken people," declared James E. Duffield, treasurer of the committee on Irish relief. "Her people do not beg—their silence is more eloquent. Our means to raise funds is a charity ball, the entire proceeds of which are to go to the cause."

ROME CAPTURED BY AMERICANS

Hotels of the City Are Over-run by Tourists

ROME—(By Associated Press)— "Tenting on the old camp ground" will be the lot of Americans rushing into Rome. Rome is full, full for months, so the hotel men say. American tourists have captured and occupy it so that others of their countrymen wishing to get in must be spoken for in advance or must pave a golden road for themselves in gratuities to hotel porters and clerks in order to get a place where to lay their heads.

"Surely but we are full. Did you write us? Did you telegraph?" is the constant cry of the functionaries at the hotels. If one cannot answer in the affirmative, sorry indeed is their lot for weary pilgrimages from one hotel to another is the only alternative.

A chance might bring a room "reaper" to one's assistance. This consists in offering a room in private house for which the daily stipulation is enormous. There was one example where an American paid $10 a night for his room in a private family. The room was only scantily furnished and not modern in its appointments.

Aside from the scarcity of lodgings, Rome seems to have taken on its pre-war tourist attitude. The same vendors of camoes present themselves to the American on his appearance in Rome. The same old faces are seen in the antique shops and the art show-rooms. The same beggars occupy their accustomed places while the same old "blind band" with its full-sighted "drummer" of tourist shovels grinds out its unintelligible viola squeaks and clarinet groans. Cab drivers lead the highways except for a new autobus line which has superseded the old horse-drawn on the Corso Umberto.

Pieces have mounted ten to twenty times what they were in the old days. All the souvenirs are a thousand per cent higher. The art works and antiques have taken a similar leap. "Felling palms" greet the American tourist at every angle. Hotel prices, even when transferred into American money, are two or three times their former level. A room and meals on the American plan costs at least $5 a person, where it used to cost two.

The convention will be devoted to discussions on the development of Ohio's public and private hospitals and their immediate needs.

Colonel J. R. McQuigg, head of the Ohio branch of the American Legion, will address the convention on the needs of former service men in hospital treatment and care.

WOMAN SAVED FROM DROWNING BY HER DOG

LONDON — Four women engaged in relief work of Constantinople narrowly escaped drowning in the Bosphorus today, says the Constantinople correspondent of the Daily Mail. They were in a boat in mid-stream when a sprang a leak and quickly sank. A Miss Cushman sank, but upon rising managed to seize her dog by the collar and the animal dragged her to safety.

Miss Astor and Mrs. Uhlis swam ashore and when safe the latter found she was clutching a bank note with which to pay the boatman, who later received the money. The fourth member of the party was a Miss Caldwell.

ASKS RETURN OF WHIPPING POST

Brooklyn Jurist Favors Ancient Method of Punishment

"WILL CUT DOWN CRIME"

Criminal's Mind Like That of Child, He Says

(By MARGERY REX)

NEW YORK — (International News Service) — Lay the lash upon the felon's back!

Administer sharp physical pain and thereby purge the criminal of his desire for evil deeds and protect innocent citizenry against his depredations!

A cure for crime so old that it's new—suggested by Lewis L. Fawcett, of the Supreme Court of Brooklyn! The remedy—novel enough in these days—would bring back the old institution of the whipping post, the cat-o-nine-tails and perhaps the stocks.

"Stone walls do not a prison make," observed an old poet, and likewise has Judge Fawcett repeated the familiar line in connection with his radical recommendation.

And let it be known here that Judge Fawcett has been widely extolled for his clemency, and often called the man who wears "his heart upon his lapel" hence the startling aspect of his cure for crime.

DECLARES FOR WHIPPING POST

Long prison terms do not deter or prevent crime declares the Justice, who, several days ago, after passing sentence upon a man convicted of a hold-up, announced himself in favor of the whipping post, combined with shorter period of punishment in jail.

"I would recommend the use of the lash upon certain types of criminals," the judge said today. For robbery, burglary, blackmail and white-slave crimes, let the sheriff lash or hue knuties to whip these especially grave offenders!

The personal opinions of the judge upon crime and punishment are not prompted by lack of sympathy for transgressors, or a belief that vengeance constitutes justice.

Nor does he go to the sentimental extreme of saying that to sentence a felon to a whipping would pain the court more than it would the criminal.

Belief that nowadays we do not properly punish crime or try to prevent it, has prompted Justice Fawcett to advocate publicly the return to the lash as a means of promoting protection for normal peaceful people.

HAVE MINDS OF CHILDREN

"The criminal's state of mind," said the judge, "is quite that of the child caught at the jam jar. If he is taken early enough and given a punishment he won't forget, he is apt to stay away from the jar. If not, he will become bolder and more complacent over his crimes."

"Men go to Sing Sing and come out time after time with a feeling, not that they have paid for crime, but that they have merely obtained asylum for a while."

"Bed and board at the expense of the taxpayers form the only risk that confronts the hold-up man or white-slaver in the pursuit of his career."

"If he is caught he goes back again, relieved of the strain of 'work' enjoys the comparatively pleasant existence in our modern penitentiary and suffers no punishment."

"The number of old offenders that crops up continually proves prisons don't reform. Then there is something wrong in the method of 'punishment.'"

"Instead of giving a fourth offender 'life'—always his fate—I would recommend six months in jail with a lashing every thirty days, the first strokes to fall previous to incarceration."

WILL NEVER COME BACK FOR MORE

"Let him be stripped to the waist and given ten welts with the lash. His skin may be broken, so let it be washed with a salt water solution to prevent infection."

"He will suffer more or less agony. The wounds will heal in twenty-two days, normally, and he will be free from pain about the time he is ready for his next whipping.

"At the end of his six months imprisonment, when he gets the last lashing, he will leave jail in pain. If he wishes to continue as a wretcheder he will very likely leave the State where such severe penalties await him."

"He will never come back for more."

"He will not blackmail any more curably insane from blows on the skull. He will not rob and injure any more victims and make little children dependent upon institutional care and force helpless women unaffiliated for work to go out into the world of toil."

"The defective, of course, should not be whipped. But we must believe that many bad people want to be bad."

Purpera has twice confessed to being implicated in the holdup, according to County Prosecutor Stanton, but declares he had no part in the shooting. His story, according to the prosecutor, is that he drove one of the two automobiles used in the robbery.

MIAMI & ERIE AS SHIP CANAL

Route That Passes Thru Allen-co Reported Chosen

Dispatches from Washington indicate that former Congressman B. F. Welby has won his fight for the selection of the Miami & Erie canal as the route of a proposed ship canal between the Ohio river and the Great Lakes.

A board of army engineers which investigated several proposed routes for the Lake-to-river canal, favor the western route, which passes thru Allen-co, striking Spencerville and Peipies. The findings are yet to be reviewed by the board of engineers for rivers and harbors, then by the chief of engineers and finally by the secretary of war.

The Central Indiana Waterways commission has been working for deep water transport in Ohio. It's acceptance of the foregoing conclusion that eventually a large canal will be constructed across Ohio and the recommendation of army engineers appointed for that purpose, is expected to have no small amount of weight in determining the final choice of route.

Albert Kreil of Cincinnati, is the president of the organization which has been securing the advantages of the route passing thru this county. Advice from B. F. Welby last week were that a report favorable to the Miami & Erie route was expected, hence the unofficial statement from Welby that it is accepted as being practically final.

TROY POSTMASTER MAY LOSE SCALP

Congressman Cable Joins in Pursuit of Dale

WASHINGTON — Steps to charges against Charles F. Dale postmaster at Troy, were taken Saturday before Postmaster General Will Hays by E. C. Goodrich, chairman of the Miami county Republican executive committee, who is backing Hays' Weidner for appointment there. While the charges will appear under the general head of pernicious political activity, their nature has not been disclosed.

Chairman Goodrich and Congressman John L. Cable Saturday called upon the postmaster general by appointment and expressed themselves as having had "a satisfactory conference."

This is the first proceeding under which President Harding's civil service order for first, second and third class offices is to be made effective, and follows immediately the announcement of policy by the postmaster general that under the order that "it is in no sense the purpose of the department to undertake to disturb postmasters of the first, second and third class postoffices who were regularly appointed and confirmed by the senate during the term for which they were appointed except for cause." The terms of all postmasters now serving in these three grades who were not confirmed have expired.

Postmaster Dale was confirmed for the full term which does not expire until 1924.

MOVE 21-MUSCLES TO PRODUCE A SMILE

LONDON — "Smile squad, fall in for face drill!"

There is nothing really fantastic in this idea of face "jerks." Experts say that it takes twenty-one pairs of muscles to make a beautiful smile or an expression of horror, the effectiveness of which depends on the standard of control attained.

Grimacing by numbers was actually tried by British soldiers in training during the war, and the smoother art of smiling properly is no less worth cultivating in time of peace.

A smile is undoubtedly a very complicated gesture," said Professor Arthur Keith, one of the most distinguished anatomists in Europe. "There are muscles for screwing up the nose, curling the lips, puckering the mouth, and last, but not least five or six for producing the effect popularly known as the 'glad eye.'"

AURORA BOREALIS SPRING FROLIC BADLY CRIPPLES TELEGRAPH, CABLE LINES

NEW YORK.—Aurora Borealis' annual spring frolic with telegraph and cable lines, which has interrupted transmission in this country intermittently since Friday night, continued today. The companies expressed belief, however, "Northern Lights" had nearly spent themselves. The main trouble today was delay in repairing machinery damaged by the flickering lights. The cable companies reported that many telegraph coils burned out.

Every telegraph company reported serious delay in transmission. The companies united in declaring that the influence of one of nature's greatest phenomena was the most extensive in their history.

Experts who have been working for many years to overcome the trouble, termed "earth currents," said they were unable to advance any definite scientific explanation.

All Mothers Will Find Use For This Laxative

Give Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin to a constipated child and note its quick recovery.

IN a growing family the subject of thought with the parents is how to keep the children healthy and happy, and what to do when they become ill. Most illnesses of childhood are the symptoms of constipation, such as headaches, coated tongues, flatulence, dizziness, loss of appetite and sleep, biliousness, etc.

You can surely feel safe in doing what tens of thousands of others do with good results, so give, according to the age of the child, a small quantity of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Eight million bottles were bought last year at drug stores. It is America's favorite family remedy for constipation, indigestion and similar ills, and especially suitable for children, women and old folks as it is so mild and gentle in action.

There is no secret about Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a combination of Egyptian Senna and other simple laxative herbs with pepsin and pleasant tasting aromatics. Druggists have sold it for thirty years, and a sixty cent bottle will last for months. Experienced mothers are never without it in the house.

COUNCIL MAY ACT ON POLE REVOLT

Full Meeting of Allied Body Expected to be Called

ENTENTE PREMIERS DIFFER

French Displeased With Attitude of British

LONDON—(By Associated Press) —There may be a full meeting of the supreme allied council for the purpose of discussing the situation which has arisen in Silesia as a result of the Polish revolt there. Despatches from Paris indicate that M. Briand intends to lay the situation before the French chamber of deputies when it meets Thursday. There has been an exchange of views between the British and French governments, but suggestions that a meeting be held have met with assertions in Paris that it would be impossible for the French premier to discuss the Silesian affair with Mr. Lloyd-George until after Thursday. GERMAN NOTE RECEIVED Premier Briand conferred with Prince Eugene Sapieha, Polish foreign minister yesterday, and it is assumed they took up the Silesian situation. M. Briand has received a note from the German government, which asserts that reports relative to the allocation of important districts in Silesia to the Germans were published in Polish papers, and could not be traced to Germans in any way. Assertion has been made that the Poles in Upper Silesia became alarmed by these reports and sought to take over districts that the supreme allied council was alleged to be planning to give to Germany. POLE TROOPS REMAIN —Advices over the week-end appeared to indicate a cessation of fighting in Upper Silesia, but there was nothing to show that the Poles were withdrawing from regions they occupied during the past two weeks. Newspaper comment here seemed to be more moderate, and reflected a disposition to advise Mr. Lloyd-George and M. Briand to reach an amicable understanding. Indignant comments of the French press regarding Prime Minister

Lloyd-George's speech on Poland before the house of commons on Friday, attracted much attention from London newspapers today. For the most part they were regretted and deplored, although in quarters where Mr. Lloyd-George's attitude relative to Poland is condemned, blame was placed upon him. BUMBLE BEE'S STING ON THE FACE TURNS OHIO BOY'S HAIR RED

MARION — Ross Thomas' hair is turning from nearly jet black to red, as the result, his physician believes, of a bumble bee's sting. A week ago, Ross, who is 17 years old, was on his way to Waldo to attend a ball game. A bumble bee flew into his automobile and stung him on the face. A short time later, the youth lost consciousness and did not recover until a physician used a pulmotor. Thomas apparently recovered then and now feels no effects from the sting except the peculiar change in the color of his hair. Plenty of good country butter at Piper's. FEDERAL BREAD, 12c.

INCREASED VALUE IS TAXABLE

Supreme Court Passes on Capital Asset Question

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — The government won today in the supreme court its contention that increased value of any capital asset must be considered in a corporation's profits when taxes were computed. The court's decision was given in the appeal of Labelle Iron Works from a ruling of the treasury that one lands purchased for $190,000 in 1904, must be returned in the 1917 report at $10,000,000 and a profits tax paid on the difference. The opinion today sustained this ruling. "The meaning of the act as to invested capital is clear," the court said. "It was to cover actual cost of property, disregarding anything that does not change the form of the investment." Hundreds of millions of dollars excess profits taxes were involved in the case which was characterized by a high government official as the most important legal suit affecting federal finances to arise in several decades. The court was unanimous in its decision except that Justice McReynolds concurred only in the result. As-1904, must be returned in the 1917 report.

WARRANTS ISSUED FOR ARREST OF BANKERS

TUSCOLA, Ill.—Warrants were issued here today for the arrest of John S. Quirk, cashier of the Arcola State Bank at Arcola, Ill., near here, and for his father, M. T. Quirk, vice president, after the bank had been closed by a state bank examiner following a reported shortage of $400,000. The warrants were sent to Arcola to be served. BREAKS JAIL PORTSMOUTH, O. — Carlos Wilson, 35, caught at Mt. Vernon and held here for an automobile theft, broke jail this morning by sawing his way thru a steel ceiling and tearing away part of a brick wall. Something in me seems to say, "Get Blue Devil this very day."

CLEVENGER TRAGEDY IS RECALLED BY SUIT FOR PARTITION OF LOT

Partition of inlot 324 in Baxter Scott's addition to Lima, is asked by Cleve Manuel in a suit filed in common pleas court against Mrs. Blanche Clevenger, now an inmate of the Lima State hospital. Mrs. Clevenger, who was Blanche Middlestetter before her marriage to Howard Clevenger, was committed to the Marysville reformatory five years ago, after the killing of her young daughter, Ariene, whom she shot, she claimed, because she could not provide for her in the way she wished. She had previously secured a divorce from her husband. Mrs. Clevenger was later transferred to Lima State hospital. Soon after the crime was committed, Clevenger re-married. He and his wife Sarah sold the property to Manuel. HYGIENE IN RHINITIS
Simple chronic rhinitis (inflammation of the lining of the nasal cavity), the cause and nature of which I described here the other day, one of the most frequent diseases, nearly as common as dental caries and constipation, is a civilizational disease, of which the most prevalent and most probable cause is the use of the handkerchief. Simple chronic rhinitis, as I explained the other day, is the answer to the question: "If drafts or exposure or wet feet don't cause colds, why I sniff, sniff, sniff up and run soon as I sit in a draft or get a feet wet?"

Coddling is the first thing to do with simple chronic rhinitis, child or adult, must learn never to take a cold. The old fossil who was his overcoat on a warm spring day or a muffler, or an extra shirt, chest protector or a pair of arctic goggles when it is neither warm nor snowing, or his woolen winter nightgown late in the spring, or in the summer, is actually need for protection against the deleterious influence to develop chronic rhinitis. I haven't it already. There is no hope for him unless he swears off his old lady. The child that is ke swaddled in clothing that is obviously too warm for comfort—just because some one fears "this is the kind of weather one is likely to take cold"—is pretty sure to have chronic rhinitis a long time. There is little hope for a permanent benefit from treatment of such condition so long as the patient hibernates, or is involuntarily influenced by the catching cold phobia. I do not say this out of mere bias or enthusiasm for my "pet hobby." I say it from conviction gained by experience in treating such conditions.

Freed from the deleterious influence of the exposure myth, the patient may take advantage of fresh air and the open at every opportunity and not merely when he imagines it safe to do so. The open air is curative for chronic rhinitis as it is for chronic bronchitis or tuberculosis.

Excessive warmth at home, in the office, in the school room, must be avoided. Children in many schools where some worthless patent ventilation is in use, or where the school teacher regulates the room temperature according to her personal degree of drafts—which is usually greater than the child's—must be forced to endure temperatures far over the 65 degree limit in the winter time, and that of course means poisoning by foul air. It is not strange that rhinitis, as well as adenoids and other abnormalities of the respiratory tract are so prevalent among school children. The get more than their share of vitiated air. Overheating is coddling which works havoc upon the respiratory tract.

A child or adult with chronic rhinitis may derive more benefit from an hour a day of work or play out of doors in the sunlight than from any treatment. This applies whether it rains or shines, snows or blows. The less clothing worn in this open air the better, at all times. Of course decency and personal comfort should be considered, but an clothing not absolutely necessary is coddling.

Keep your sink as sweet as your disposition—use Blue Devil.

ALL THE MONEY YOU HAVE CANNOT BUY TWO WORDS IN THESE COLUMNS

ANENT DISARMAMENT

THESE are indeed slow times for the advocates of disarmament of nations as a preventative of war. The going is hard and to some extent impossible.

No matter how optimistic the apostles of disarmament may feel about it, there is not a chance for an official step in that direction at the present time. On the contrary, it is expected that our national appropriations for army and navy will be excessively large this year.

Senator Pomerene hoped to bring about delay in action on the naval and army plans for a period of six months, while Senator Borah introduced a resolution authorizing the President to call a conference of representatives of the United States, England and Japan, to agree on a "naval holiday." The chief executive has ordered all such plans discarded.

The appropriation bill in the Senate carried $100,000,000 more than the bill passed by the House and is almost identically the same as the bill that failed of passage last March in the Senate. The House bill provided for a personnel of 100,000 men, while the Senate measure increased the number by 20,000 and provided for a greater aviation program development of Pacific coast fleet bases and speeding up capital ship production. There is no reduction or lessening of armament anywhere in the bill.

It is a foregone conclusion that the tax paying public will be called upon to pay even more in the future and that a larger percentage of the taxes will be applied to military purposes. Even now, more than two-thirds of the taxes paid in for national purposes go to military upkeep.

Secretary Denby of the navy and Secretary Weeks of the war department are determined that the United States shall have the largest navy and army possible for this country.

It is little wonder that other nations, noting our activity in this respect, have grown suspicious and that they too are bending extra effort along the same lines. Under present circumstances, there is no chance of disarmament. Results in that direction will come only after years of sentiment shaping.

"GETTING" JUDGE LANDIS

IN danger of being ousted by Congressional decree from his position as Federal Judge in Chicago, Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis is beginning to sit up and take notice of the situation as it really exists. When a fight was begun on Landis by former Congressman D. F. Welty to force him to get off the bench or give up a $42,500 a year job as supreme baseball arbiter, the Chicago man and his close friends relied on public opinion to laugh the thing out of court.

But the public did not laugh. It took the matter seriously and still does. Judge Landis knows it now. He is becoming concerned and anything that he might do would not be surprising. There is no denying the fact that the demand made upon Landis to give up one of his jobs has found a generally responsive echo with the people at large.

The Senate judiciary committee has reported favorably on the bill of Senator Dial, which provides that a Federal Judge cannot draw more than one salary. Of course it is understood that this measure is directed at Judge Landis, with his combined salary of $50,000 a year as Federal Judge and base ball head.

Persistent rumors that Landis had resigned drew negative replies from him. If the Dial bill passes, he will have to decide which of the two jobs he prefers to retain. And it probably will not be a difficult matter for him to arrive at a decision.

COLOR, NOT MAKE, COUNTED

A MAN I know desired to buy his wife an automobile, writes Fred Kelly in The Nation's Business. He had heard her say that she craved a small runabout painted dark blue. In the course of a few days he startled an automobile dealer, a friend of his, by sticking his head in the door and inquiring: "Have you got any two-seated blue automobiles?" Learning that the dealer had one he said: "All right, send it around to my house." Then he went on his way. A few moments later he was at the dealer's front door again long enough to inquire, just as a matter of idle curiosity:

"By the way, what make of automobile is it that you sell, and how much does it cost?"

This case is not exaggerated. It actually happened. The point is that the man knew the dealer and believed in him. He had always heard that the dealer handled a good medium grade automobile worth the price asked. He was willing to take a chance on the dealer's reputation.

Every day we do that more times than we realize. It is the only thing we can do. The average man hasn't the time or the mechanical ability to make a thorough investigation of the actual merit of various automobiles. Similarly in buying life insurance, we do not actually go on our own judgment, but take the word of somebody we believe in to tell us what kind of policy we ought to have.

SAD OUTLOOK FOR BANDITS

WHEN Postmaster General Will Hays a few days ago told an audience that "We have obtained from the war department 16,000 automatic revolvers, a million rounds of ammunition and several hundred riot guns for arming all the essential postal employees," that "we simply have to go back to the old Wells-Fargo days and shoot to kill and we are going to do it," the statement marked the time for history to repeat itself and brings a day of sorrow for the bandit.

In the olden days primitive stage coaches were protected by armed men. The modern mail car or postoffice with men "armed to the teeth" to thwart bandits is probably needed. Increasing number of mail robberies and the boldness of the thieves make the initiation of "shoot to kill" methods quite necessary. There's nothing like a dose of lead to break up brigandage. In case of robbery it is a few intimidating many. Arming mail men will likely break it up.

MISS LIMA: "Women who neglect to draw the shades over the windows in their homes at night should make no complaint about men having rubber necks."

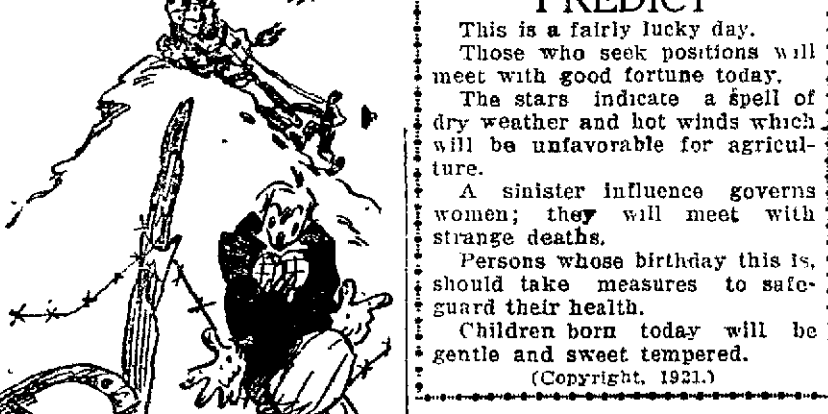

JUST FOLKS—BY EDGAR A. GUEST

THE INDEPENDENT MAN

He could have winked his eye at He could have followed with the shame and kept the friendship of a few. He could have flattered fools for gain, as many pleasant men will do; But he would neither wink at shame nor flatter folly to its face. So promptly they got rid of him and put another in his place.

They said of him he talked too much, he would not learn to hold his tongue. He boldly called a spade a spade, which does not suit the man who's wrong. The easy "yes sir," would have paid, instead he boldly answered "No." Which so annoyed the man in charge, he felt obliged to let him go.

WHAT THE STARS PREDICT

This is a fairly lucky day. Those who seek positions will meet with good fortune today. The stars indicate a spell of dry weather and hot winds which will be unfavorable for agriculture. A sinister influence governs women; they will meet with strange deaths. Persons whose birthday this is, should take measures to safeguard their health. Hi Stubbins. Sez!

A Sure Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

INTRODUCING THE YAK

Dear Roy—A few weeks ago you stated that you were thinking of adopting a buffalo. Last Sunday I visited the zoo and saw a collection of yak which an obliging sign told me are thoroughly domesticated in Tibet. At once I thought of you! With what envy would you stir the hearts of your neighboring poodle tuggers! And while the yak weighs a pound or two less than the buffalo, I think this slight shortcoming might be overlooked when counting the joy brought thru a yak's services as tea wagon trundler and similar domestic duties of the daintier class. It might be that Mr. Yak could be taught to yawn just as the dishes were ready for drying. With a regulated wag his tail brush could be made to serve as motor power for the rocking chairs, and by standing him on his head one need no longer worry about dust on the ceiling.

Up where we live, on the river, there is a stone wall which holds up an embankment. Our side of the wall is about three feet high, but the other side is about forty feet high, if you get what we mean. Well, this wall for some years has been a great trying place, and of an evening many young couples perch on it and talk about the future and all that and pick out the curtains for the parlor and decide upon the gramophone records and other important features of housekeeping. The other evening one young man became so enthusiastic that the last thing we saw of him was a pair of patent leather shoes and gray spats disappearing over the wall. He thought he was reclining in the motor chair in his new home and leaned back. Well, the young lady yipped and several others seated on the wall did likewise, and we ran out of the house and joined the crowd that ran down the stairs to the drive to pick up the remains and carry them home in a basket, but when we got there we found the young man brushing himself off and humming "Bright Eyes." You see, he landed on his head, and, being in love, it didn't hurt him a bit.

"Man-Woman-Marriage," Heliotrope and "Uncharted Seas" Comprise Trio

Theatre Directory and Snapshots of the Screen Presented for Movie Fans

(By ESTHER WAGNER)
THOSE of you who have seen the production "Man-Woman-Marriage," showing at the Regent this week, know that it is a truly wonderful picture. Those of you who have not seen it may be assured that you have a treat in store for "Man-Woman-Marriage" is a great drama.
The story is great in its simplicity, great in scenic effects, great in its acting. Its people are real. There is not an act or a gesture that is not vital to the story. Mass and detail are blended with marvelous effect.
The story told is age-old, depicting woman thru the ages. Its dominant note is Faith. The opening scenes tell of Victoria the Woman, who marries David, the Man, because she really loves him. Together they dream and work, happy in their family life and simple surroundings. But soon David becomes a political power, and with the coming of his power comes the estrangement with his wife. Worldly joys have come to replace their marital happiness and things come to a stage where they agree to separate, each, however, claiming their two children.
It develops that David has been unscrupulous and is arrested. His power gone, his society friends desert him, he gives up to black despair, but it is the wife who restores his faith in God and humanity and brings him back to a realization of their lost dreams and happiness. Of such material is the story proper made.
Allen Holubar, the director, deserves a world of credit for the manner in which he blends the above story with medieval scenes. He takes you back to the days of Constantine the Great, to the period of the Amazona, when thousands of women rode into battle to save their children, to the days of chivalry and mythology. He has done this smoothly and intelligently, sparing neither expense nor effort to secure the effects he has so beautifully portrayed.
Dorothy Phillips and James Kirkwood, the leading characters, do splendid work. They're so real and vital that you share their joys and sorrows, their mistakes and misunderstandings, as if they were real people, instead of screen players. Photographically, scenically and technically, the picture "Man-Woman-Marriage" is perfect.
And so we say, with all sincerity, that to see "Man-Woman-Marriage" is to see a decidedly worth-while production. It's one of those pictures that can't be described thru the medium of the typewriter. You have to see it to get an idea of its real magnitude and dramatic force.
At the Regent all week.

"Heliotrope"

Here's a melodrama that almost hits the high spots, despite the fact that an ax should be used on some of the sub-titles. Exceedingly fine acting is one of the things you'll see in the picture. The plot is really clever.
They call the hero of this tale "Heliotrope Harry," because of his fondness for that particular scent of perfume. There are a great many admirable qualities about the gentleman, even though he is one of those objectionable creatures who insists on spraying himself with flower essence.
Heliotrope, good, bad, and perfumed as he is, is "sent up." For himself, that would not be so bad, but he has a small daughter living in another environment, whom he wishes to remain in ignorance of an evil mother and himself.
For fifteen years he serves. Then comes the news that his daughter, about to be married well and happily, will after her marriage be black-mailed by her mother. One of the really splendid scenes occurs when Heliotrope pleads with the visiting governor for pardon, and standing erect and steady-eyed, promises man-to-man that he will not lay a hand on his wife and will protect his daughter without bloodshed. You will be greatly impressed with his work and that of Mr. Tooker as the Governor and Mr. Findlay as the compassionate warden.
The chase starts. No gun play, no violence. Just Heliotrope in one form or another wherever the evil mother goes, pursuing tirelessly. There is blood shed finally, but not until the birth certificate has been destroyed by Heliotrope. Having performed this work, he lets himself be shot. The woman gets sent up in her turn, hangs herself in her cell—and that's about all. It's plenty.
Fred Burton, whom I don't remember especially well, is seen in the role of Heliotrope Harry and his portrayal is excellent.

AT THE MAJESTIC:
Charlie Chaplin heads the cast in "The Kid," appearing today at the Majestic theatre. Little Jackie Coogan has an important role.
ACTORS SAY
Some of the stars and directors were pitching quotes in front of Selznick's Fort Lee studio recently. The grass had not yet fully bloomed upon the lawn and after a few aimless things the picture players decided to stop work in the mud and begin gossiping. The net result of a spirited discussion on the subject of marriage is given below:
Owen Moore — "I would not marry a girl who crouched in the street like Burrows in 'Broken Blossoms.'"
Eugene O'Brien — "I would not marry a girl who bobbed her hair." Conway Tearle — "I would not marry a girl who smoked a pipe." George Archibald — "I would rather direct a woman than be directed by a woman." Henry Kolker — "I would not marry a girl if she asked me to." Ralph Ince — "I would not marry any woman. My wife won't let me." Goldwyn is making a movie of a Swedish drama, "Syndafloeden (The Sin Flood)".
Donald Crisp will direct and play a part in "Beside the Bonnie Briar Bush," which is to be filmed in Scotland. This is his first screen appearance since he played the part of Batling Burrows in "Broken Blossoms."

GIRL, 18, IS TOO YOUNG TO WED

Advised to Wait Until 20.

Heart Would Meet Fair Lady—But Don't Know How.

"Fatty" Advised Not to Starve Self in Effort to Become Thin.

Dear Miss Smart:

I AM a young girl of 17 and am engaged to a man of 20. He is a fine young man and has splendid principles. My family can find no fault, but they do not want me to marry until I am 20. My fiancé wants me to marry him right now and we love each other dearly. I do not see why my parents wish to spoil my happiness. I think I am old enough to get married. What would you advise me to do?

AN ENGAGED GIRL

YOUR parents are simply trying to safe-guard your happiness, not spoil it. They realize that you are too young to be married and for you to wait until you are at least 20 years old is only a reasonable request.

In the glamour of romance you have, doubtless, overlooked the practical side of marriage. You have not, most probably, stopped to think that if you were to marry now, you would have to give up many of the carefree and happy pleasures which belong to youth? You may think now that you would not miss these good times, but later you would be almost certain to realize the sacrifice and would probably grow resentful and discontented.

Then there are also the new cares and responsibilities connected with marriage. A girl of 17 is very young to adapt herself to the management of a home. Few girls of 17 have acquired sufficient training and patience to care for a home with reasonable efficiency and economy.

Be sensible now and wait for awhile, as your parents have requested. If you and this young man really have a lasting affection for each other, waiting will not destroy it.

Dear Miss Smart:

I am very anxious to meet a certain girl and I do not know how I am going to do it. I see her almost every day and know she is a nice girl. I can't very well just go up and speak to her. I thought once of writing her a note. What would you advise me to do?

MILITARY HONORS FOR MASTERPOLE

Body of War Hero to be Interred Decoration Day

Plans are under way by the American Legion to bury the body of Joseph Masterpole, who was killed in the World War just before the armistice was signed, here Decoration Day with full military honors. John A. Harley, post commander of the American Legion, has received word that the body will be shipped from Holotken Thursday and will arrive in Lima Friday.

Arrangements are being made to hold the body here until Decoration Day.

CASKET ON CAISSON

The local units of the Ohio National Guard will provide a caisson which they expect to secure from Columbus Barracks on which to convey the casket containing the hero's body. It will be drawn by six horses of the local cavalry outfit.

Post Commander Harley issued an appeal Monday in which he urgently requests the presence of every ex-soldier in Alliance to turn out for the parade to pay a tribute to their comrades who lost their lives during the war.

All ex-service men are requested by Harley to be at Memorial Hall not later than 8:15 Monday morning, May 30, where they will have a place in the parade and take a leading part in the ceremonies at Woodlawn cemetery.

James I. Heffner said Monday that practically every Spanish War veteran will march in the parade and asks each one to get in touch with him as early as possible so that details may be arranged.

12 WIN TEACHER CERTIFICATES

Result of May 7 Examination Announced Monday.

Teachers' certificates were issued Monday to the successful applicants at the teachers examination May 7. Of those making application twelve were successful. A large number of the others made very good grades in the subjects they were examined in, but as they did not take the complete examination at that time, they must reappear at a later date and finish before they can be given certificates. From the grades received it would appear that a number of three year certificates will be earned.

Those granted three year renewals are: Arthur Winegardner, Effie Siderer, Edith Bassett, Georgia Fackler and Jesse W. Steiner. Alma Stevieck and P. E. Riegel earned three year certificates by examination.

Two year renewals were granted to Andy Hilyard, Effie Siderer and C. C. Briggs. A one-year certificate on normal training was issued to William Scottburn. Laura Kennel passed the examination with sufficiently high grades to entitle her to a high school certificate.

Another examination will be held July 2, at which time new applicants can appear and those who are yet to be examined in some subjects may complete their work.

"But, Herbert, Aunt Fanny suggested, 'You might let Florence have a little share in it of some sort. Then everything would be all right.' It would," he demanded, his voice cracking naturally, at his age, but also under strain of the age, he wished it to express. "It would," he said, "I'll be sure to do it." "Oh, my goodness, Aunt Fanny, I guess you'd like to see our newspaper just utterly ruined! Why, we wouldn't let that girl have any more to do with it than we would some horse. After we got her out yesterday we fixed a way so she'll never get in there again." Florence looked at him demurely. "Are you sure, Herbert?" she inquired. "Just you try it!" he advised, with heartiest sarcasm, and he laughed heartily. "Just come around tomorrow and try it, that's all I ask." "I certainly intend to," she responded with dignity. "I may have a slight surprise for you." "Oh, Florence, say not so! Say not so!" he said. "Oh, Florence! Say not so!" At this she looked full upon him, and already she had something in the nature of a surprise for him; for so powerful was the still bafflingness of her glance he was slightly startled. "I might say not so," she said, "I was speaking of what pretty eyes you know you have, Herbert." It staggered him. "What—what you mean?" "Oh, nothing," she replied artfully. "What's this about Herbert having pretty eyes?" Mr. Joseph Atwater inquired, and Herbert shuddered. Uncle Joseph had an unpleasant reputation as a joker. The nephew desperately fell back upon the hopeless device of attempting to drown out his opponent's voice as she began to reply. He became roisterous with scornful laughter, badly cracked in the scorn. "Florence got mad!" he shouted, mulling the purported information with loud cacklings. "She got mad because I and Henry played games with Patty! She's trying to make up somep'n to get even. She made it up." "No, no," Mr. Atwater interrupted. "Let Florence tell us, Florence, what was it about Herbert knowing he had pretty eyes?" Herbert attempted to continue the drowning out. He bawled, "She made it up! It's somep'n she made up!"

up herself! She—
"Herbert," said Uncle Joseph—"If you don't keep quiet I'll take back the printing press."
Herbert snatched another gulp for a continuation of his noise.
"Now, Florence," said Uncle Joseph, "tell us what you were saying about how Herbert knows he has such pretty eyes."

Then it seemed a miracle befell. Florence looked up, smiling modestly. "Oh, it wasn't anything, Uncle Joseph," she said. "I was just trying to tease Herbert any way I could think up."

"Oh, was that all?" A hopeful light faded out of Uncle Joseph's large and inexpressive face. "I thought perhaps you'd detected him in some indiscretion."

Florence laughed. "I was just teasing him. It wasn't anything, Uncle Joseph."
Herbert resumed a confused breathing. Dazed, he remained uneasy, profoundly so; and gratitude was no part of his emotion. He well understood that Florence was never susceptible to impulses of compassion in conflicts such as these; in fact, if there was warfare between them, experience had taught him to be wariest when she seemed kindest.

When Florence left, he impulsively accompanied her, maintaining a nervous silence as they compassed the short distance between Uncle Joseph's front gate and her own. There, however, he spoke.

"Look here! You don't haf to go and believe everything that ole girl told you, do you?"

"I didn't say she told me anything at all," said Florence.
"Well, she did, didn't she?"
"Why, no," Florence replied lightly. "She didn't say anything to me. Only I'm glad to have your opinion of her—how she's such a story teller and all—if I ever want to tell her and everything!"

But Herbert had greater alarms than this, and the greater obscured the lesser. "Look here," he said, "if she didn't tell you, how'd you know it then?"

"How'd I know what?"
"That—that big story about my ever sayin' I know I had"—he gulped again—"pretty eyes."

"Oh, about that?" Florence said, and swung the gate shut between them. "Well, I guess it's too late to tell you tonight, Herbert; but maybe if you and that nasty little Henry Rooter do every single thing I tell you to and do it just exactly like I tell you from this time on, why maybe—I only say 'maybe'—well, maybe I'll tell you some day when I feel like it."

She ran up the path, up the steps and crossed the veranda, but paused before opening the door. Then she called back to the waiting Herbert: "That—ole person I'd even think of telling about it before! I tell you would be a boy I know." She coughed and added as by an afterthought, "He'd just love to know all about it. I know he would so, when I tell anybody about it I'll only tell just you and this other boy."

"What other boy?" Herbert demanded.

And her reply, thrilling thru the darkness, left him paralytic with horror. "Wallie Torbin!"

The next afternoon, about 4 o'clock, Herbert stood gloomily at the main entrance of Atwater & Rooter's Newspaper Building awaiting his partner. The other entrance were not only nailed fast but massively barricaded; and this one (consisting of the ancient carriage house doors, opening upon a driveway thru the yard) had recently been made effective as an instrument of exclusion. A long and heavy plank leaned against the wall near by, ready to be set in hook-shaped front supports fastened to the inner side of the doors; and when the doors were closed, with this great plank in place, a person inside the building might seem entitled to count upon the enjoyment of privacy, except in case of earthquake, tornado or fire. It was in a flurried state of mind that Herbert waited; and when his friend appeared, over the fence, his perturbation was not decreased. He even failed to notice the unusual gravity of Henry's manner.

"Hello, Henry! I thought I wouldn't start in work till you got here. I didn't want to haf to come all the way downstairs again to open the door and haf our good ole plank up again."

"I see," said Henry, glancing nervously at their good ole plank. "Well, I guess Florence'll never get in this good ole door—that is, if we don't let her, or something."

This final cause would have surprised Herbert if he had been less preoccupied with his troubles. "You bet she won't!" he said mechanically. "She couldn't ever get in here again—if the family didn't go interfering around and give me the dickens and everything, because they say they think—they think—"

He paused, disguising a little choke as a cough of scorn for the family's think.
"What did you say your family think?" Henry asked absently.
"Well, they say we ought to let her have a share in our newspaper. Again he paused, afraid to continue lest his hypocrisy appear so barefaced as to lead toward suspicion and discovery. "Well, maybe we ought," he said, his eyes guiltily upon his toe, which slowly scuffed the ground. "I don't say we ought, and I don't say we oughtn't."

"I don't, either," said Henry. "All I think about is what my father and mother say, because I'm not goin' to have their advice all the rest o' my life, after they're dead. If they want me to be polite, why, I'll do it and that's all there is about it."

"It's the same way with me, Henry. If she comes flappin' around here blatin' and blubbin' how she's goin' to have somep'n to do with our newspaper, why, the only reason I'd ever let her would be because my family say I ought to show more politeness to her than up to now. I wouldn't do it in any other account, Henry."

"Neither would I. That's just the same way I look at it. If I ever begin to treat her any better, she's got my father and mother to thank, not me. That's the only reason I'm willing to say we better leave the plank down and let her in, if she comes around here like she's liable to."

"Well," said Herbert, "I'm willing. I don't want to get in trouble with the family."
And they mounted the stairs to their editorial, reportorial and printing rooms and began to work in a manner not only preoccupied but apprehensive. Now and then they would give each other a furtive glance and then seem to reflect upon their fathers' and mothers' wishes and the troublous state of the times. Florence did not keep them waiting long, however.

She might have been easier to bear had her manner of arrival been less assured. She romped up the stairs, came skipping across the old floor, swung her hat by a ribbon, flung open the gate in the sacred railing and flounced into the principal chair, immoestly placing her feet on the table in front of that chair. Additionally, such was her riotous liveliness, she affected to light and smoke the stub of a lead pencil. "Well, men," she said heartily, in a voice assumed to be that of a tall, powerful man—"I don't want to see any loafin' around here, men, I expect to have a pretty good newspaper this week—yes, sir, a pretty good newspaper—and I guess you men got to jump around pretty brisk to do everything I think of, or else, maybe, I guess I'll have to turn you off and get some new ones that'll be more obedient. I don't want to haf to do that, men."

The partners made no reply, on account of an inability that was perfect for the moment.

HER OWN CAREER

By PHYLLIS PHILLIPS

an armful of packages.
What a re-union that was. How Gwendolyn kissed and cried with delight at the transformation in her father and mother, looking like a bride and groom, themselves, as she told them over and over again. Then they sat down to a feast at the old table, and Gwendolyn slipped into an apron, as of old, and all dainties, made and then served up some of her famous hot biscuit in a way that brought a smile to her new husband's lips.

Over and over again they had to tell of their sudden marriage in Paris, of their honeymoon to Italy, and of their decision to come back home, and just be home-folks for a while—maybe for ever so long. And over and over again they repeated their plans for the future to their proud father and mother.
"You see, we're really going to settle out in John's home. But we're going to visit with you and mother, daddy, for a long time. And after that, you two will have to do most of the visiting out our way, because I've got my career carved out for me, pretty definitely now, by my lord and master, John and Fedya and Fern are back at the old studio, waiting for the stork to arrive any day now, and Fern looks perfectly happy. So, you see, everybody's happy now!"

Some three months later there were great preparations going on in the Channing farm house. It was the day before Christmas, and Jim Channing, very red as to face and very hilarious as regards to spirits, stood admiring the decorations he was busy with.

"Mother, mother," he called impudently to his wife, who with little delay came bustling into the room, in answer to Jim's call.
"Looks pretty good, don't it?" he asked, smiling over at her. "All we need now is the sight of those two smiling faces among this here holly and evergreens, is what I'm thinking. And the sound of their laughter in the old place."

Then stopping suddenly, he walked over to his wife, tilted back her head and kissed her on the mouth. "What else do you expect, standing under the mistletoe—and right under your own husband's nose," he said laughingly. "Now, just one more for luck, mother," and here he put his big arms round her and hugged her hard.
"Jim, Jim, here we are acting like a couple of kids—and our own baby girl newly married. Why, you'll be a grandfather afore you know it!"

A remarkable change had taken place in Mrs. Channing. "Since Jim and me found ourselves," she always laughingly explained to curious and astonished neighbors, "we just found ourselves sudden like, and became happy and in love, and found out that we had missed

Why Castoria?

YEARS ago Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups were the remedies in common use for Infants and Children; Castor Oil so nauseating as to be almost impossible and the others all containing Opium in one form or another, but so disguised as to make them pleasant to the taste, yet really to stupify the child and give the appearance of relief from pain.

It required years of research to find a purely vegetable combination that would take the place of these disagreeable, unpleasant and vicious remedies that from habit had become almost universal. This was the inception of, and the reason for, the introduction of Fletcher's Castoria, and for over 30 years it has proven its worth, received the praise of Physicians everywhere and become a household word among mothers.

A remedy ESPECIALLY prepared for Infants and Children and no mother would think of giving to her baby a remedy that she would use for herself, without consulting a physician.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

Have You Tried It?

Everybody has read the above headline; how many believe it? Have you a little-one in the home, and has that dear little mite, when its stomach was not just right felt the comforts that come with the use of Fletcher's Castoria? You have heard the cry of pain. Have you heard them cry for Fletcher's Castoria? Try it.

Just help baby out of its trouble tomorrow with a taste of Castoria. Watch the difference in the tone of the cry, the look in the eye, the wiggle in the tiny fingers. The transformation is complete from pain to pleasure. Try it.

You'll find a wonderful lot of information about Baby in the booklet that is wrapped around every bottle of Fletcher's Castoria.

a whole lot in life somehow or other. So now we are makin' up for lost time. That Jim of mine is a darling."
It was this "finding of each other that had changed the once thin and angular Mrs. Channing into a softly rounded woman with smiling lips to replace the austerity of old ones and with happy eyes and the laugh of a girl when she laughed, which was very often nowadays.

Jim Channing came and went like a veritable lord of the manor now. Gone was the starchy, intimidated man of a few months before.

"Come, mother, come get into that new lavender dress of yours, and make yourself pretty as a plink for our Gwendy. It's high time. Why, they'll be here any minute now." And with another kiss he picked up his wife and carried her to the foot of the stairs.

At a knock on the door below, they both flew to open it and welcomed a very red-cheeked Mr. and Mrs. John Neale, who stood smiling on the threshold, wishing them a merry Christmas and struggling with their luggage.

Here John stood up and proposed a toast to Mr. and Mrs. Channing, who, all smiles and blushes, stood up and smiled down at the newly married pair, as they listened to John's eulogy of them and their many virtues.

"And one more toast for the dearest girl in all the world," said John, tenderly, turning to Gwendolyn, and lifting his glass high in the air as he spoke of her and wished her a life-long happiness. Then, all unmindful of father and mother Channing, John took his starry-eyed little wife into his arms and kissed her on the lips.

"Oh, John, darling," she breathed into his ear. "I'm the very happiest girl in all the world tonight. Just hold me tighter, tighter!" And John did.

THE END

The New Laws on teeth cleaning—five of them

Dental science has adopted new laws on teeth cleaning. They mean whiter, cleaner, safer teeth to those who follow them.

Millions employ these new methods, largely by dental advice. Now this ten-day test is offered to show every home the results.

1—Fight the film

The first law is to fight film—that viscous coat you feel. It dims the teeth and causes most tooth troubles.

Film clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays. Old ways of brushing do not end it. So few have escaped some form of film attack.

Film absorbs stains, making the teeth look dingy. It is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Two methods now

Two ways are now known to fight film. Able authorities have proved their efficiency. Leading dentists everywhere now advise their daily use.

Both are embodied in Pepsodent—a scientific tooth paste. They keep the teeth uniquely clean and also highly polished.

Three other laws

Modern starchy diet also calls for other helps to Nature. So every use of Pepsodent brings these three desired results.

1—A multiplied salivary flow.

No Charge

for a 10-day test. Simply mail the coupon and watch the delightful results.

2—Multiplied starch digestant in the saliva, to digest starch deposits that cling. 3—Multiplied alkalinity of the saliva, to neutralize mouth-acids which cause tooth decay.

Thus Pepsodent fights ~~two~~ deposits that cling. 3—Multiplied alkalinity of the saliva, to neutralize mouth-acids which cause tooth decay.

Brings a new era

These mean vast improvements on old methods. In fact, old methods brought the opposite effects. Pepsodent has introduced a new era in teeth cleaning, and millions now enjoy it.

Now we urge that you send for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coats disappear. Feel the other good effects.

Then decide by what you see and feel. Do this for your own sake. Cut out the coupon now.

CARPENTIER ARRIVES IN NEW YORK WITH PARTY

READY TO START IN TRAINING FOR BIG FIGHT JULY 2

NEW YORK — The steamship LaSavoie, with Georges Carpentier, the European boxing champion aboard, arrived in port today. Carpentier came ready to start work for the world's championship bout with Jack Dempsey, in Jersey City, July 2.

Accompanying Carpentier, was his manager, Francis Descamps and a promoter of the championship bout, was at the head of an official welcoming party which awaited Carpentier at the dock. Rickard and Dempsey already had sent the Frenchman greetings by wireless.

Plans were made to take Carpentier to his training camp at Manhasset, Long Island, this afternoon, where training quarters have been constructed on a spacious tract of land.

DESCAMPS DECLARES CARPENTIER IS BEST FIGHTER

BY FRANCIS DESCAMPS
(Manager and Trainer of Carpentier)
(Written for the United Press)

NEW YORK — When Georges Carpentier and Jack Dempsey shake hands in the ring July 2, the greatest fight in history will start.

The two greatest boxers the world has ever produced will be facing each other. I regard Dempsey as head and shoulders above any American fighter, either past or present. Carpentier is unquestionably not only the best the old world has ever produced, but by far the best.

It will be shown in Jersey City July 2, whether it is physically possible for the greatest of the light-heavyweights to defeat the greatest of the heavyweights.

The fight also will reveal the great progress that boxing has made in the last decade.

Jeffries, Johnson and Corbett were untrained. Dempsey and Carpentier, not only is the modern boxer better trained and better developed physically, by modern training methods, but he is richer in actual ring experience.

Carpentier has been in more than 100 bouts, while Dempsey has about 60 on his record.

Training methods have been revolutionized so that the boxer not only pays heed to his physical condition, but studies his business scientifically.

Carpentier spends hours in study. His "text book" period has been of great value to him. He fights every fight by move before he ever gets into the ring. He diets carefully, his menus being arranged to include only those foods which will develop the specific qualities he needs.

Dempsey is also a boxer of no mean scientific ability and knowledge in ring strategy. He is the greatest all-around heavyweight the ring has ever known. He is not as scientific as Carpentier, however, I regard Corbett as the nearest approach to Carpentier in science, but I do not think he ranks with Georges.

Nature endowed Dempsey with a bigger body, more strength and a larger supply of muscles. But Carpentier was gifted with a better brain. I believe that Carpentier's superior mental properties will counteract Dempsey's greater brawn.

Who will win?

My answer is that for 15 years I have dreamed one dream: Some day my little pupil is going to be champion of the world.

Year by year, I have seen that

THAT'S FINE

NEW YORK — The never-say-die Giants staged a fierce winning rally in the last half of the ninth round at the Polo Grounds Sunday afternoon, and wiped "Rube" Marquard out of the map just when he was about to turn in a handsome victory.

The Reds came up to the final session leading, three to two, with the "Rube" pitching his head off to defeat his former teammates, but they would not let him get away with it, and in five minutes they had crushed out two doubles and a pair of singles and put over the necessary two tallies. Thus "Rube's" fine game was turned into a Waterloo, and the struggling Reds continue on the down side.

"Rube" got a rather bad start in the early rounds, but pitched with great effect after the third inning until they got to him in the ninth.

For once the Reds succeeded in bunting their hits, committing a fine rally in the fifth round which enabled them to score good tallies and made them look like winners. This was the effective hitting that was done off Arlie Nehf, but it resulted in his being taken out of the game at the end of the seventh, and "Polly" Peritt worked the last two rounds in perfect order.

RACE DRIVERS TRAIN FOR LONG AUTO JAUNT AT INDIANAPOLIS

It takes more than a mechanical marvel and clever driving to compete in a long automobile race, such as the international 500-mile race, to be held at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, Monday, May 20. The driver must have a physique that will withstand the torments of swirling about the two-and-one-half mile bricked oval at gravity-defying speed. All the drivers go thru long periods of training before they are ready to start and even then it is sometimes necessary to relieve them for a time during the race.

Roscoe Saries, shown above with a sparring partner, boxes nearly every day before a race. He squeezes into his busy day at least an hour of vigorous exercise a cold plunge and a "college" rub down. Dario Resta plays golf and takes long walks. Ralph De Palma trains every day of his life, and by leading a simple life is ever ready for the starter's "Go." Ira Vail does a lot of cross-country driving and spends plenty of time sleeping. Ralph Mulford, the clown of the race track, says, "I just eat all I can and let the bumps digest it." Tommy Milton plays handball and his buddy, Eddie Hearne, drives in a touring car over country roads. Andre Bollot, the French pilot, spends most of his time on a farm in sunny, southern France.

MAKE WAY FOR SISLER! THAT'S WARNING GIVEN TO LEADING BATTERS

CHICAGO — Make way for George Sisler!

That is the warning given the leading batters of the American league by the averages for the past week, including games of Wednesday, for the young first baseman of the St. Louis Browns stepped into a slugging streak which will soon carry him to the top of the list if it is continued.

Harry Heilmann, of Detroit, leads the league with figures released Saturday with the sensational figure of .521, but Sisler sent out thirteen safe hits in six games during the past week and climbed from thirty-fifth place in seventeenth position.

The champion batter of 1920 increased his average from .286 to .352, his hits including three doubles, two triples and a home run. In addition he scored ten runs and stole two bases.

Heilmann hit in an unprecedented fashion to hold his league leadership, also smashing thirteen hits in six games, three being doubles and two going for four bases.

Burns of Cleveland, is the runner-up to the Detroit slugger with an average of .452, displacing Evans of Cleveland, who was a second last week. Evans is batting .417.

The veteran Tris Speaker, manager of the World's champions and Ty Cobb, pilot of the Tigers, give promise of being near the top before long. Speaker with .409 is in fifth place. Babe Ruth follows with .388. Wood of Cleveland, is fourth with .412.

Babe Ruth, by crashing out two circuit drives, brought his string of homers up to ten. Harris of Washington, continued to set the pace among the base stealers, with six.

Other leading batters include Stephenson, Cleveland, .380; Menosky, Boston, .375; Witt, Philadelphia, .373; O'Neill, Cleveland, .365; Gharitty, Washington, .365.

Roger Hornsby, of St. Louis, is star, who last season, topped the batters of the National league, has noted his way to the top of the batters in the major circuit. Hornsby boosted his mark from .388 last week to .471.

George Kelly of the New York Giants, who promises to give Babe Ruth of the Yankees a race for home run honors, failed to add to his total of a week ago, his total remaining at seven.

Bohne of Cincinnati, broke the triple tie for stolen base honors, which he shared with Heathcote of St. Louis and Maraville of Pittsburgh, by stealing three bags. He is showing the way on the paths with seven thefts, while Heathcote is trailing with six.

WATCHING THE SCOREBOARD

YESTERDAY'S HERO.—Waite Hoyt, The Yankee pitcher held the champion Indians to two runs, while his team mates piled up eight and went into first place in the American League.

Aided by 12 bays on balls, two wild pitches and a hit batsman, the Tigers made it two straight from the Senators, 13 to 10.

The Red Sox busted a tie with four runs in the tenth, Pratt scoring all of them with a homer and trimmed the Browns 11 to 7.

The White Sox performed the unusual feat of winning. Mullenbach pitching defeating the Athletics 7 to 0.

A ninth inning rally, which netted two runs, gave the Giants a 4 to 2 win over the Reds.

The slipping Dodgers were again bumped by the Cardinals, this time by a score of 10 to 6.

Experts have estimated that 20,000,000 tons of paper pulp can be produced each year from India's bamboo and grasses.

THEY CALLED CINCINNATI PUG IS ANXIOUS TO MEET JOE SULLIVAN

IT A GAME BUT—

What had been advertised as a baseball game at Murphy-st park Sunday afternoon took on the form of an endurance test on the part of the players. The contest appeared to be only a matter of which team could stand the grind of running around the bases longest.

The exhibition would have made the Grand Old Men of baseball weep had they seen it. It would have broken their hearts to know that such a travesty could be perpetrated in the name of the national sport.

SCORE OF 27 TO 11.
The final score stood 27 to 11 in favor of the Lima Independents, with the Delaware baseball club holding the short end of the tally.

Lima players, the majority of them imported from surrounding cities, gathered in 28 hits during the alleged game.

The Delaware club was too weak a team for Lima. They put up practically no opposition, and the game dragged along without interest.

Many fans left the park long before the fiasco ended, being discouraged.

Frankie Ryan, the Cincinnati heavyweight who is to fight Joe Sullivan, Toledo, here Wednesday night at Memorial Hall in a 12-round decision bout, arrived in Lima Sunday afternoon with Carl Morris, the Oklahoma giant, and was looking for training quarters Monday where he can finish working out for the fight.

He is now quartered at a local hotel, and looks to be in good condition for the coming bout. Speaking of Sullivan, he said he would not predict the outcome of the scrap but made it plain that he is going to try his best and make the Toledo bear-kiss the canvass before the end of six rounds.

"This Toledo boy is a hard boxer to beat. He knows how to handle his mitts, and has the power back of them to make any fight interesting. I am going to have a hard fight, but I believe that I will get the decision," he said.

Sullivan is training hard in Toledo, and is not expected to arrive in Lima until some time Wednesday morning.

AN ABLE FIGHTER
The last time he fought here when he met Gabe Gulhart, he made a splendid showing. He is an able fighter, and his style of boxing is most pleasing.

Reports coming from Delphos over the week-end were to the effect that "Speck" Kasler is working out hard for his fight with "Big Iron" Turner.

Kasler is being trained and managed by Johnny Newton, and has the markings of developing into a real pugilist. He is now weighing 148 pounds, and should be able to put up a stiff fight against Turner.

RACE BETTING IS RESTORED IN MONTANA

HELENA, Mont. — With the same relish that a dog plunges into a cool pool on a hot day did the reform-minded members of the Montana House of Representatives register an overwhelming vote to restore six-day pari-mutuel race meetings at the State and county fairs of the State.

However, the reformers have one more chance. They amended the bill in the house and it remains for the Senate to concur. The amendment is considered trivial. It provides that no fair association may advertise that it permits operation of pari-mutuels. The advertising is paid matter, however, and sporting writers are happy. They are also already sharpening up their vocabularies and announce that the "good old days" are here once more.

The reformers battled with a crowd of men from all parts of Montana who proved that they don't care what the people say so long as the horses run, the State and county fairs resume their "pep" and the crowds flock to the races once more.

The debate over the bill in committee of the whole house was long and beset with amendments, nearly every one of which sought to strangle the measure or to rule it off for life before the starter could drop his flag.

One of the silent but liberty-loving members of the House, Representative W. E. Dowlin, of Yellowstone County, defeated the reformers.

He gave a brief but telling and happy talk on the subject of the horses.

"On one side we have the moral issue and it is a good argument," he said. "On the other side we have whether you want a fair and people to come and stay a week and get some with memories of many a thrill and a tingle of excitement or do you want them to come for one day and see the pumpkins and the cows."

"I can't get excited or thrilled looking at corn and pumpkins but I can when I see horses, running horses I mean, coming round the turn in the stretch and pound the turf in their desire to finish first."

The vote for favorable recommendation followed Mr. Dowlin's talk.

BOULEVARD LIGHT CONTRACT GIVEN

Columbus Firm's Bid of $132,014 Is Accepted

Contract for the new boulevard lighting system in the downtown district and the W. Market-st. extension was awarded to the Northern Electric company, Columbus, at a meeting of the board of control Monday. The Columbus firm secured the contract on its bid of $132,014.35.

In addition, the city will have to pay cost of advertisement, preparation of plans, supervision of construction and other expenses which will swell the total to approximately $150,000.

Original estimates for the construction of the system prepared by G. Herman Gagner, Columbus, last year placed the cost at $174,000, plus other extra expenses. Since estimates were prepared, copper wire has hit the lowest level experienced in years. Steel and iron for posts, declined from 15 to 25 per cent. Labor has gone down in price, as have electrical fixtures. Thus a saving to tax payers of more than $40,000 is effected. The fact that 14 contractors bid on the work was also another reason for the low prices submitted.

Bid submitted by the Carter Electric company, Kokomo, Ind., was the lowest offered, but was not considered because engineers making estimates bid on the basis of actual wire used, while the specifications called for the actual footage from post to post. The difference would have amounted to some 30,000 feet of wire. Their bid for $121,518.94 was withdrawn.

Other bids submitted were Kelly Construction company, Eau Claire, Wisconsin, $132,415.46; Gray Electric company, Detroit, $134,454.56; C. M. Kelso, Dayton, $141,431.33; Freeman-Sweet company, Chicago, $144,114.22; Commonwealth Electric, St. Paul, Minn., $146,363.25. All other bids were more than $150,000.

Three new residents of Lima and one of Ottawa, Putnam-co, made their advent Sunday night, brought by the stork at St. Rita's hospital, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Hamilton, 725 Holmes-ave, announce the birth of a son; Mr. and Mrs. James Gorman, 951 Greenlawn-ave, a son and Mr. and Mrs. William Taffinger, 220 E. Market-st, a son.

Dr. Burton McCroba and Mrs. McCroba, Ottawa, announce the birth of a daughter.

Two new-comers were registered at the City hospital Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Blust, 449 S. Jackson-st, announce the birth of a daughter and Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Crane, 655 S. West-st, a son.

STATE HOSPITAL NOW HAS 872 INMATES

Four more inmates were added to the list of the Lima State hospital Sunday, bringing the number now being cared for in that institution up to 872.

The four were transferred from the Ohio State penitentiary, where they had been held, because it was found they were afflicted with mental disorders. Two of the men are negroes and two white, one being an Italian.

MILK PRICES TUMBLE AS BUTTER FAT GOES DOWN THE TOBOGGAN

Milk took another tumble Monday when wholesale prices dropped to five cents for pints and nine and a half cents for quarts. This will make the retail prices six and eleven cents respectively for the pints and quarts. The price paid to the producer also fell 50 cents a hundred pounds. Prices now being paid are $2.25 a hundred compared with a former price of $2.75 a hundred.

Declines in the price of butter fat is held to be the main cause of the slump. Increased supplies also had a slight effect. Frank Kommink, manager of the White Mountain Dairy Co., stated that he believed that prices now quoted would not be further reduced. With butter at 32 cents it is believed that the bottom has been attained.

$80,000 IN BONDS FORFEITED

Results from Escape of the I. W. Leaders

CHICAGO—(By United Press)—The eight other convicted I. W. W. leaders who failed to surrender at Leavenworth prison, were forfeited today by order of the circuit court of appeals.

The I. W. W.'s bonds were from $5,000 to $15,000 each, aggregating $80,000.

Otto Christensen asked that the forfeiture of the bond of Harwood, who informed the United Press by wireless today that he would return to serve his 30-year sentence, be postponed until William Brosie Lloyd, Harwood's chief bondsman, could be reached.

Lloyd, millionaire communist, is cruising in the Chesapeake Bay. The court refused to grant the request.

Most of those who failed to "dress in" at Leavenworth prison were editors of foreign language newspapers during the war and the men considered the "intellectuals" of the I. W. W. movement.

The 37 I. W. W.'s are now serving their terms.

AVIATION SITE IS HELD UP BY TITLE

BOSTON—Condemnation proceedings to acquire land for a naval aviation station, to be known as Chatham Aviation Field, have begun in the Federal Court with the filing of a petition by the Government for the securing of property owned by about forty persons in Barnstable County.

An appropriation of $75,000 was made by Congress for the purchase of the land under the Urgent Deficiency Act, but the owners, it is stated, failed to give the Government clear title as promised. The Government contends it has been unable to purchase the land free from incumbrance and asks that a jury in the Federal Court fix a purchase price on the various parcels in question.

FRANCE WILL MOBILIZE BEES IN NEXT WAR

PARIS—The next time France goes to war she's going to mobilize the bees.

It all came about in the senate's discussion of the expenditures for agricultural purposes. One senator remarked oratorically that the French people ought to get to work like the "busy bees."

That reminded Senator Menier that if the government had been up to snuff it would have used a lot of honey when there was a big sugar shortage during the war. The minister of agriculture said it was a good idea and volunteered to give all necessary information about bee-keeping to stay-at-home patriots in the next war.

"JACOBITE" PARTY IN HUNGARY FORMED

PARIS—Details of yet another plot to re-install Emperor Charles on the throne of Austria are reaching Paris. A secret association to this end has just been found and it is in close touch with royalist circles in Austria as well as with the immediate entourage of the former Emperor and his friends in Germany.

Former Minister Wagner is said to be the leader of this secret gang and he has as collaborators former-Minister Bleyer in Hungary and the organizing chiefs of the Orghesch, Germany's new army, in Germany. Wagner has made frequent trips to Switzerland and has had many conferences with Emperor Charles and his suite at Prangins, wherein all phases of the restoration of the Hapsburgs in Austria were discussed at great length.

The body of Paul Kelly, 17, who was killed in a railroad accident in southwestern Texas, Saturday morning, has been shipped to Lima, according to information which reached this city Monday. The body was started on its trip homeward Monday morning.

LIMA GAS MEN TO ATTEND MEETING AT CINCINNATI

Lima gas men who left Monday to attend the convention of the Natural Gas Association of America at Cincinnati expressed the hope that they will be able to secure some facts at the meeting which will be of advantage to the public in the settlement of the gas question here.

Those who attended from Lima are: E. R. Curtin, Sr., president of the Lima Natural Gas company; Frank Fringle, manager, E. L. Malco, superintendent; Emmett Curtin, Jr., assistant superintendent, and J. A. Brady, engineer. They will return Friday.

DELEGATES TO GAS CONVENTION ARRIVE

CINCINNATI—Delegates from many parts of the country arrived in Cincinnati today, to attend the convention of the Natural Gas Association to be held here this week. An interesting exhibition of household and other supplies used in connection with the gas industry has been arranged in connection with the convention. A unique feature is an exhibit by the U. S. Bureau of Mines, which illustrates how one million dollars worth of gas a day could be saved by this country by the proper use of gas appliances.

The convention will be formally opened tomorrow.

NO CLUES FOUND IN FETT HOLDUP

Victims of Robbers Near Bluffton Expect Return of Bonds

For the purpose of obtaining clues which might possibly develop in the hold-up of Samuel and Jacob Fett, bachelor brothers, near Bluffton, Friday night, Sheriff Charles W. Baxter and Detective Roy Bowersock made a second visit to the scene of the robbery, Monday morning.

They went carefully over the premises and listened to explanations made by the brothers.

Efforts of police and of county officials have failed to turn up anything that might lead to the identity of the hold-up men. The brothers have neither heard nor seen anything of the bonds of the amount of $2,000 which were taken.

As the bonds were registered, they could not be disposed of and one of the brothers told officials Saturday the robbers promised to return them should they prove of no value to them. Besides the $2,000 in bonds taken, there was $240 in the loot which the men got away with on their visit to the bachelors.

RATE SUSPENSION URGED AT CINCINNATI

CINCINNATI—Suspension of the proposed new freight rates on the Louisville and Nashville railroad until a hearing is given to Cincinnati merchants and manufacturers, is urged in a protest filed with the Interstate Commerce commission today by the Cincinnati Association of Purchasing Agents. The rates are scheduled to go into effect on June 16. The protest points out that the rates to Cincinnati have been advanced 40 per cent instead of 25 per cent, as proposed; that it is unfair to fix a rate of $2 a ton on coal to Cincinnati from the Kentucky fields when only 17 cents more is charged to the lakes, a haul twice as great.

SHORT SHAVINGS

Young people visiting the movies are reluctant to leave when the performance ends. They frequently wait to see the picture repeated.

Recently a little girl appeared at the ticket booth of a movie playhouse, with a small basket, and appealingly asked the woman in charge "Missus, may I go in to speak to my sister?"

"I'm sorry," said the woman. "You are not permitted to enter unless accompanied by your parents or a guardian."

"Please, missus," she coaxed, showing the contents of the basket. "I won't be long; I just want to give my sister her supper."

The young woman had spent a busy day. She had browbeaten fourteen salespeople, bullied a floor-walker, argued victoriously with a milliner, laid the law down to a motorist, nipped in the bud an attempt to overcharge her, made a street car conductor stop the car in the middle of a block for her, discharged her maid and engaged another and otherwise refused to allow herself to be imposed upon. Yet she did not smile that evening when a young man begged: "Let me be your protector thru life!"

At the annual prize day of a certain school the head boy rose to give his recitation.

"Friends, Romans, countrymen," he vociferated, "lend me your ears!" "There," commented the mother of a defeated rival, eagerly, "that's Mrs. Brown's boy. He wouldn't be his mother's son if he didn't want to borrow something."

NEW BISHOP WILL VISIT LIMA

Monsignor Schwertner to be Made Prelate on June 8

PONTIFICATE HERE JUNE 19

Former Lima Pastor Will be Head of Wichita Diocese

Monsignor August J. Schwertner, Toledo, recently chosen bishop of the Diocese of Wichita, Kansas, will celebrate pontifical mass in St. John's Catholic church, Lima, Sunday, June 19.

Monsignor Schwertner was pastor of St. John's church here for more than six years and his success is largely due to his labors, parishioners say. It will be the only mass, save one, which the newly-made bishop will celebrate in Ohio before taking up his duties in Wichita.

BECOMES BISHOP JUNE 8

Monsignor Schwertner will celebrate the other mass in Canton, which city is his home. He will be made bishop in magnificent ceremonies to be held in Toledo Wednesday, June 8, being the first Catholic dignitary to be accorded that honor in Toledo.

The coming to this city of the new bishop for the celebration of pontifical mass will be the occasion for the great outpouring of Catholics from all over the city, at St. John's. Monsignor Schwertner was popular with Catholic and non-Catholic alike during his stay in Lima. He was transferred to Toledo as chancellor of the diocese in 1913. Friends from St. Rose and St. Girard's Catholic churches, as well as those from nearby towns will have a part in the mass which the new bishop will chant at St. John's. The hour has been set for 10 o'clock.

SWITCHMEN OPPOSE PROPOSED WAGE CUT

TOLEDO — A final stand against reductions in wages or switchmen and against a longer day in that branch of railroading was taken today by the Switchmen's Union of North America in convention here. In a resolution the delegates affirmed their declaration to stand by the decision of the federal railroad wage board and to "resist peacefully any and all attempts to disturb the economic condition of switchmen or lower their standard of life."

The attitude of the grand officers on the wage issue was sustained and further pledge was given of support to all other organizations resisting wage reductions. No further opposition to the election of Thomas C. Clohesy of Chicago as president was voiced today. A banquet will be given in his honor Friday night.

COMPLICATIONS BRING DEATH TO MISS DOWNEY

Miss Josephine Downing, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Downing, West Cairo, died at the home of her parents, early Monday morning. She had been ill some weeks. Miss Downing was first afflicted with diphtheria, which left her system in a weakened condition. Death was due to complications. Besides the parents, she is survived by three sisters, the Misses Jennie, Dorothy and Nellie Downing, and five brothers, Robert, Hugh, Charles, Roy and Paul Downing. Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 1:30 p. m. at the St. Joseph's church, West Cairo. Interment will be in the east side cemetery, West Cairo.

WAS A BLESSING TO THEIR HOME

Akron Man Says By Restoring His Wife's Health Tanlac Has Meant A Great Deal To Them.

"My wife and I are both glad to recommend Tanlac, for it certainly has been a blessing in our home," said Harry E. Reynolds, 736 Bowery St., Akron, while at the Day drug store.

"For three years my wife suffered from nervousness and a persistent cough which kept her in miserable health. She couldn't do her housework, and the least little noise would upset her entirely. She had no appetite, just could not get down to the table and enjoy a meal, and nights she was so nervous and coughed so much neither of us could get much sleep."

"Well, it seemed that all the neighbors were praising Tanlac, so my wife started taking it. After finishing her sixth bottle she was sleeping just like a child at night, and was relieved of that cough. Her appetite came back, too, and now she enjoys eating just as well as I do. Tanlac certainly has meant a great deal to us, and we're both mighty thankful."—Adv.

Is Your Work Wearing You Out?

Are you working day in and day out with a dull, dragging backache? Is your work slowly weakening your kidneys? Many kinds of work wear out the kidneys, the kidney trouble makes any work hard. It brings morning lameness, backache, dizziness, nervousness, and distressing urinary disorders. If your work strains your kidneys, help your kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills. Workers everywhere rely on Doan's. Ask your neighbor!

Another Lima Case
Mrs. C. H. Grank, says: "For kidney trouble Doan's Kidney Pills have always proven very good. When backache and kidney ailments cause annoyance, Doan's Kidney Pills never fail to restore the kidneys to a normal condition. They have done me wonderful good and I never lose any opportunity to recommend them to other kidney sufferers."—Adv.

SO WEAK SO NERVOUS

How Miserable This Woman Was Until She Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Toomsboro, Ga.—"I suffered terribly with backache and headache all the time, was so weak and nervous I didn't know what to do, and could not do my work. My trouble was deficient and irregular periods. I read in the papers what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others, and decided to give it a trial. I got good results from its use so that I am now able to do my work. I recommend your Vegetable Compound to my friends who have trouble similar to mine and you may use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. C. H. PHILLIPS, Toomsboro, Ga.

Weak, nervous women make unhappy homes, their condition irritates both husbands and children. It may even lead to the loss of the nervous system. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cures the blues, irritability, and backache arising from some displacement or derangement of a woman's system. Mrs. Phillips' letter clearly shows that no other remedy is so successful in overcoming this condition as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
